

DESPERATE HOUSECAT CUPCAKE 22894

Are you looking for a cat that's both chill and cuddly? CUPCAKE may be your girl! She was brought to AAS because she didn't like sharing her owner with another cat. Away from other cats, CUPCAKE is affectionate and attention seeking, and will meow at you to remind you to pay attention to her. But she's also happy to spend time entertaining herself by bird watching, hanging out in boxes, or taking a nap in whatever cozy spot is handy. She loves to play with toys; catnip mice and crinkle balls are her faves to hunt. CUPCAKE's cutest quirk is that when she's relaxed, she throws one hind leg over whatever is handy: the edge of a box, a chair, or your arm. She has excellent indoor manners, and is an expert side snuggler. She tolerates being carried, loves getting brushed, and doesn't have a problem with nail trims. CUPCAKE also has the most elusive cat trait of all: she likes belly rubs! She definitely will be the queen of your house, but only human subjects please, no other pets. Come meet CUPCAKE today!
