

DESPERATE HOUSECAT ZOEY 30364

ZOEY lived in a home her entire life, and found herself at AAS because her owner could no longer take care of her. They described her as playful and friendly, sometimes wanting some alone time, but otherwise being a lap cat. She is shy with new people, and is especially afraid of men (although she will eventually warm to them). ZOEY had a tough time living at the shelter, but now that she's in foster care, she is blossoming like crazy! She is very much enjoying apartment living, and is a real sweetheart. ZOEY makes a great couch buddy and LOVES to play fetch! Her foster mom is currently working with ZOEY's vet to determine the right diet to help her shed her love handles. ZOEY needs a quiet environment as the only pet with someone who will give her time to relax (it won't take long). Once she decompresses, she will be a wonderful companion.
